10 Communication Activities for Adults and College Students

5 Communication Activities & Skills for High School Students. Learning to participate in healthy, communicative relationships is especially important for high school aged students. Forming these skills will take them through high school, into higher education, or into their careers. Of course, many of high school age would love to take a break from the tedium of a lecture environment and interact with other students or just do something new, and that's just what these activities allow.
